From the Chairman's Desk

Education is not a witch-hunt for degrees. Every minute there is explosion of knowledge and keeping pace with it which is the hallmark of education now at the same time it should be job oriented. This is to redefine education in the light of the present requirement. Keeping this in view, we update our system in a way that a student does not get lost when he or she relates it to the job he seeks after the completion of studies. We emphasize, doubt clearing, encourage incessant queries by students in various disciplines and constant exposure of students in scrutinies, exams (weekly, monthly, quarterly) which helps to identify their short comings. We device methods for eliminating them. This continues to be an unending endeavour to polish the performance of our students. Almost all the faculties work for their ideal
